Preface

The Vermont School Register is a student record-keeping document required by Vermont Statute (see Appendix B). The purpose of the school register is to document each Vermont school's continuous year-to-year cycle of enrolling students, to record daily attendance, to report dropouts and graduates, and to report year-end attendance to the Agency of Education. It is the source document for calculating Average Daily Membership, which is a critical aspect in the state funding system. The mechanism for transferring this information to the Agency of Education is the Vermont Student Census, which is collected at the beginning and end of each school year.

In Vermont, students of compulsory age are expected to be members of a school or acceptable educational program. A student must be enrolled elsewhere if he or she leaves their current school or educational program. This concept of continuous enrollment has always been included in the school register. However, reporting this information to the Agency of Education was introduced with the major revision to Student Census beginning in the 2003-2004 school year. The revised Student Census documents the entry of students into the school system, their continuous enrollment from one school to another within Vermont and/or their transfer out of the Vermont Public School System. Each student must be enrolled on a register whether or not the student attends that first day of school. Once a child is enrolled in the school system, it is the school district's responsibility at the beginning of the year to account for each student who was enrolled on the last day of school the previous year. Within ten days of the start of each school year, the register must show that each student from the previous year is attending, absent for a specific reason, has transferred, is receiving an approved alternate form of instruction or has dropped out of the school system.

The Vermont School Register consists of the Yellow Pages. The Yellow Pages, along with the list of students and student information, serve as a public record and should be maintained as such. As of the 2013-2014 school year the AOE will no longer provide the A & B pages. Schools are expected to replace them with a computerized student information system and they will no longer be maintained as part of the public record.

CHAPTER ONE: THE VERMONT SCHOOL REGISTER

1.1 Introduction

Vermont Education Statute requires each Vermont public school to maintain a Vermont School Register. The purpose of the school register is to record each student's participation in an approved program of instruction.

Each school must keep an enrollment record of the students who enroll, transfer, withdraw, and drop out of the required program of instruction. Each school must also keep a daily record of attendance, excused absences, and unexcused absences of each enrolled student. Beginning in the 2013-2014 school year the school register must include course offerings along with educators teaching courses.

Collecting and reporting accurate daily register data for enrollment and attendance is important because it affects each school district's funding. The Agency of Education (AOE) collects data from the register two times during each school year. The first collection, the Fall Census, includes a list of all enrollment instances from the beginning of the school year (July 1) through about November 7. The Fall Census includes information about the school and each student that allows the AOE to calculate the Average Daily Membership (ADM) for all Vermont Districts. The ADM is a critical component in the state funding system. This collection also allows the AOE to create the October 1 count of students used in federal reporting and allocations of state and federal grants.

The second collection of the Student Census, the Spring Census, takes place at the end of the school year. At that time, each school must report the attendance record and update the enrollment record for each student enrolled in the school at any time during the course of the school year. The attendance data are used for calculating a Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) for each student. The FTE is used to determine each school district's tuition rates for students attending from another school district and per pupil spending for annual AOE reports. In addition, the Spring Census documents each student's classification at the end of the year allowing the AOE to calculate attendance rates, retention rates, and graduation rates as part of its statewide accountability system.

In addition to the student census information, schools must maintain records on courses offered by the school. This course information includes educators providing instructional services, student enrolled in course, and student outcomes including credits earned and marks. This course information is reported to the AOE at the end of the school year in the Student Educator Course Transcript (SECT) data collection. Information received in this collection will be used to develop a state-wide student transcript data repository to facilitate the transfer of student information for students transferring between schools in Vermont and the development of course-taking patterns as an indicator of how well schools are preparing students for post-secondary success, and research on course-taking patterns and student performance.

1.2 Overview of the School Register

The school register is a record of the continuous year-to-year cycle of: enrolling or re-entering students, recording daily attendance and absences, tracking when students leave a school, reporting dropouts, and year-end attendance to the AOE.

The school register may be used in each classroom or in a designated central location for all classrooms. Enrollment and attendance information must be updated daily, with summaries compiled for each student at the end of the school year. Schools are expected to maintain a computerized school register, or student information system that must meet the requirements of school register as specified in this document and data collection reporting instructions.

The concept of continuous enrollment is the basis of the school register. According to this concept, students are enrolled in the school system one time and schools must track their continuous enrollment from one school to another. After the original entry in the school register (usually pre-kindergarten or kindergarten), a student is maintained on that school's register until they leave that school. Each student must be enrolled on a register on the first day of school whether or not the student attends that day.

Continuous enrollment means that once a child is enrolled in the school, it is the school's responsibility at the beginning of the year to account for each student who was enrolled on the last day of school the previous year. Within ten school days from the start of each school year, the register must show that each student from the previous year is attending, absent for a specific reason, has transferred, is receiving an approved alternate form of instruction or has dropped out of the school system.

Similarly, schools are now expected to track the enrollment of students in specific classes, the status, and the outcome of each course. A class is a particular section of a course offered at the school.

1.3 Register Requirements

1.3.1 The Schools

Any school submitting the public school census, must maintain a Vermont public school register.

1.3.2 The Students

The majority of students on a school register are students who attend classes, full time at that school. Students who attend a different school (public or independent) full time are not included on the register even if the student is a legal resident of the district operating the school (except in the circumstances described below). In addition, students who take classes but do not attend school all day everyday at the school, are enrolled as part-time students. This includes students who are enrolled in a home study program or an independent school and also take academic classes at a public school. Students enrolled in a home study program using the school's facilities for co-curricular or extra-curricular activities are not part-time students. These students are included in the enrollment record (and the Student Census), but they do not contribute to a school's enrollment and their attendance is not recorded.

There are a few instances where students are on a school register without attending classes at that school. In these cases, the school or program where the students receive their education is required to submit the attendance and absence information to the "base" school. For instance, technical centers must keep separate registers, but the students are considered enrolled in a separate high school or base school. The attendance of students should either be taken at the base school before transportation to the technical center, or the attendance taken at the technical center should be reported back to the base school. A similar situation exists for students attending Diversified Occupation Programs or temporarily placed in a tutorial or treatment program. The base school refers to the school providing transportation or in the case where no transportation is provided the base school refers to the school operated by the same district as the technical center.

Students enrolled in summer classes only are not included in the register and any summer school attendances are not recorded in the register or reported in the Student Census.

If you are unsure about whether a particular student should be reported on your register, please contact the AOE helpdesk at 802-479-1044.

1.4 Instructions for Completing the Register

1.4.1 Identification Page

To complete the Official Identification page please provide the information requested including: the grade levels served, the identity of the registrar, principal(s) and superintendent(s) names and information about the school calendar. The identification page should be dated and signed by the school registrar and the superintendent.

1.4.2 Lists

The Yellow Pages include a list of fire drills, certified personnel and students. The Yellow Pages will serve as the public record for your school and should be presented to the superintendent by the registrar before July 15.

1.4.3 The Daily Record of Attendance

The AOE requires that all schools maintain a computerized enrollment and attendance record. The attendance record does not need to be a part of the schools public record.

It is expected that a school will use a separate Attendance record for each program type. The school is allowed to set up the Attendance record in a manner that suits its particular needs. The following is a list of allowable grade or program codes (see Glossary for more information).

1.5 General Rules

1. The purpose of the register is to record each student's school participation from the date of entry to an official exit from school. This documentation of these changes includes events such as transfer to another school, discontinuing schooling and receiving high school diplomas.
2. Schools must record the enrollment and attendance of students who are engaged in educational activities away from the school. These activities may include home or hospital tutoring provided by school personnel, a page participating in the legislature, technical center students or temporary alternate placements.
3. A student may be entered in more than one school register in a given school year but must only be officially enrolled in one register at a time. For example, students attending two schools part-time or one school full-time and another school part-time can only be officially enrolled in one school. The second school would record the student as receiving services but enrolled in another school (see Section 2.1.1). Both schools should record the attendances and absences used to create the FTE for these students. In addition, the part-time information used for calculating ADM should be recorded and reported by both schools.
4. A school must record enrollment and attendance data on a computerized register providing the computer program meets the requirements of the Student Census.
5. High schools will be expected to identify students who are attending their school through the Public High School Choice formally known as Act 150 school choice. The sending school will not report students who transferred to another high school through Public High School Choice. Independent schools are not required to participate in Public High School Choice.
6. Any student absent without an excuse for 10 consecutive school days will be removed from the register on the 10th day and absences will no longer be counted. The school's truant officer will be notified and expected to diligently investigate the whereabouts of the student. The student's enrollment will have an exit code of "status unknown" until the truancy officer determines otherwise.

CHAPTER TWO: THE ENROLLMENT RECORD

2.1 Overview

When a student enrolls in a school, the school is expected to record the student type to allow for proper calculation of the Average Daily Membership. Section 2.1.1, titled “Admission Status”, provides the complete list of student types. To meet the state and federal requirements for continuous enrollment, a student must be given an enrollment classification at the beginning of each school year and again on the day following the last day of the school year. Section 2.1.2 titled “Entry/Reentry Types” is a complete list of the required codes used at the beginning of the year. Sections 2.2 describes exit codes and when and how to use each required code. Information regarding part-time students is found in Section 2.3. Final classification codes are described in Section 2.4.

2.1.1 Admission Status

When a student enrolls, a school is expected to record the student’s admission status to allow for proper calculation of the ADM used in state funding and for creating reports on Vermont’s public school students. Students included in the ADM calculation include regular students (01), Public High School Choice students (02), home study students (04 & 05), students receiving services at a school (07), and students enrolled but receiving services elsewhere (08 & 09). All others are excluded from the ADM calculation. All students except home study students and students receiving services are counted on a school’s enrollment. Admission Status codes are as follows:

- 01- Regular student: A student who meets all of the regular admission requirements of a school or an educational institution. This includes students tuitioned from other districts.
- 02- Public High School Choice student: A high school student who meets all of the regular admission requirements of a school attending from another Vermont high school through Public High School Choice.
- 03- Exchange student: A student from a country outside of the United States or its outlying areas who is temporarily enrolled in classes or a course of study at a school or educational institution in the United States.
- 04- Home study student taking academic classes: A student who receives home instruction and takes academic courses at a school. Academic courses include those courses that regular students receive academic credit for and that take place during normal school hours. Note: these students may or may not participate in extra- or co-curricular activities.

- 05- Home study student participating in extra- or co-curricular activities only: A student who receives home instruction and who participates in school sponsored extra- or co-curricular activities. These activities frequently take place outside of normal school hours and often last for only a portion of the school year. The school is not required to track attendance for these students. Do not include students attending an independent school and participating in extra- or co-curricular activities here.
- 06- Guest student: A student attending a school or educational institution on a full-time basis other than the school of his or her regular enrollment without tuition payments. This includes children of teachers who live outside of the school district who attend the school as part of the teacher’s employee benefit plan.
- 07- Student is receiving services at this school, and enrolled in a different organization: A student taking courses or receiving other educational services at your school who is officially enrolled in a different school.
- 08- Student is enrolled in this school but receiving services in a different organization: A student who is enrolled in your school is taking courses or receiving services from some other organization.
- 09- HSCP student: A student enrolled at this school, but attending the High School Completion Program.

2.1.2 Entry/Reentry Types

The enrollment classification must be indicated for all students on the first day of the school year. Original entry (08, 09, or 10) will be used for students enrolled in the school where they first entered the United States school system (usually as a preschool or kindergarten student).

Students who attended another school or who were withdrawn from school the previous year will have an entry code indicating their prior situation. The following is a list of entry/reentry codes to be used at the beginning of the school year or when a student enrolls after the first day of school.

- 01- Transfer from a public school in Vermont, a designated public school, or Rivendell Academy: A student who transfers from a public school that is located in the state of Vermont, including Burr and Burton Academy, Lyndon Institute, St. Johnsbury Academy, and Thetford Academy or Rivendell Academy in Orford, NH.
- 02- Transfer from an independent school in Vermont: A student who transfers from an independent school in Vermont. This does not include students transferring from Burr and Burton Academy, Lyndon Institute, St. Johnsbury Academy, and Thetford Academy.
- 03- Transfer from a school in a different state or from a school outside of the country: A student who transfers from a public or private school that is located in a state outside Vermont, a public or private school that is located outside of the United States, or a United States overseas dependents school. See 09 and 10 for options related to foreign students.

- 04- Transfer from an institution: A student who transfers from an institution with an educational program. This includes mental health institutions, correctional institutions, juvenile service agencies, care shelters, and detention facilities.
- 05- Transfer from home study program: A student who transfers from a period of receiving instruction in a home environment (chosen for reasons other than health).
- 06- Matriculation from another school: A student who enters a school after successful completion and promotion from the highest instructional level of another school to enter the next higher level.
- 07- Re-entry after a voluntary or involuntary withdrawal: A student who had previously entered any class in school and then re-enters the same or a different school after he or she has left school for voluntary reasons (e.g., dropping out) or involuntary reasons (e.g., prolonged illness, temporary disability) during a regular school session.
- 08- Original entry into a United States school: A student already residing in the United States enters a school for the first time in the United States or an outlying area. This student is likely to be a preschool or kindergarten student.
- 09- Original entry into a United States school from a foreign country with no interruption in schooling: A student who has recently moved from a foreign country where he or she had been enrolled in school and enters a school in the United States or an outlying area for the first time.
- 10- Original entry into a United States school from a foreign country with an interruption in schooling: A student who has recently moved from a foreign country where he or she had not been enrolled in school and enters a school in the United States or an outlying area for the first time.

2.2 Students who leave a school

The enrollment record must include information about students leaving a school. The following sections describe the circumstances under which students leave school and provide the exit codes for each situation. The enrollment record should include the code and the last month, day, and year of an individual's attendance in school; the day on which an individual graduated or the date on which it becomes known officially that an individual left school.

2.2.1 Students Transferring to other educational programs

A student may be entered in more than one register in a given school or more than one school in a district or the state during a school year, but must only be officially enrolled in one school register at a time. Each time a student is moved from one register to another, the first register must show that the student transferred and the new register must show that the student reentered. The transfer codes indicate that a student has:

- 00- Moved to another register in the same school<sup>1</sup>: A student who moves to another class or program in the same school. In this case the enrollment and attendance record from both registers must be combined for reporting in the Student Census.
- 01- Transfer to a public school in Vermont: A student who transfers to a public school that is located within the state of Vermont or Burr and Burton Academy, Lyndon Institute, St. Johnsbury Academy, and Thetford Academy or Rivendell Academy in Orford, NH.
- 02- Transfer to a Vermont public school through Public High School Choice: A student who transfers to another Vermont High School through Public High School Choice.
- 03- Transfer to an independent school in Vermont: A student who transfers to an independent school in Vermont.
- 04- Transfer to a school in a different state or to a school in a different country: A student who transfers to a public or private school that is located in a state outside Vermont, a public or private school outside of the United States, or to a United States overseas dependents school.
- 05- Transfer to an institution: A student who transfers to an institution that has an educational program. This includes mental health institutions, correctional institutions, juvenile service agencies, care shelters, and detention facilities.
- 06- Transfer to home study program: A student who transfers to receiving instruction in a home environment (chosen for reasons other than health).
- 07- Matriculation to another school: A student who enters another school after successful completion and promotion from the highest instructional level of the current school to the next higher level.

2.2.2 Students Counted as Dropout

A student who leaves school before completing the requirements for graduation and without transferring to another educational program is considered a dropout.

A dropout can also be defined as a student who ceases to attend school and his or her residence and school status is unknown. If a student does not officially leave school by indicating a reason for transferring or dropping out, it is the school's responsibility to account for the student within 10 days of the student's first day of absence. The school must determine if the student is absent for a specific reason, has transferred, is receiving an approved alternate form of instruction or has dropped out of the school system. Unless the student is absent and plans to return to school, the appropriate exit code must be entered in the register. If the student's school status is unknown after the 10-day investigation period, the student must be recorded as a dropout (15) "Absence/Status Unknown". Students with the following exit codes are counted as dropouts.

<sup>1</sup> Exit code 00 applies only to the school register. It would not be reported in the student census because the student with an exit code of 00 would still be enrolled in the same school.

- 14- Discontinued schooling: A student who stops attending school and the student does not intend to complete the requirements for a high school diploma.
- 15- Absence/Status Unknown: A student who has been withdrawn due to 10 consecutive days of unexcused absence, status or location is unknown to the school or school district.
- 16- Moved, not known to be continuing: A student who has moved outside his or her attendance area and is not known to be continuing his or her elementary or secondary education.
- 18- Transfer to GED program NOT operated by VT School District: A student who has transferred to a GED or Adult Basic Ed program not operated by a Vermont School District prior to the completion of his or her secondary education.
- 19- Transfer to College Program: A student who has transferred to a college program resulting in a college degree without receiving a high school diploma. These students will be counted as non-graduates in the cohort graduation rate unless they re-enroll and receive a diploma after completing college coursework. In addition, these students will contribute to the annual event dropout rate.

2.2.3 Students Completing their Education

A student who has completed their program of study and does not intend to return to high school should be recorded as such. Only students graduating with a regular diploma contribute to a school's graduation rate. The following exit codes apply to these students.

- 08- Graduated with regular diploma: A student who has received a regular high school diploma upon completion of state and local requirements or a high school diploma from a program other than the regular school program.
- 09- Completed School with Other Credentials: A student who received a certificate of attendance, or other certificate of completion, in lieu of a diploma.

2.2.4 Codes for Other Reasons to Cease School Attendance

Students who officially leave school and transfer to another school or equivalent state-approved education program are not dropouts. Students who are temporarily absent due to suspension or illness, or students who have died are also not considered dropouts. The AOE collects data for the following categories that must be reported.

- 11- Death: A student whose membership is terminated because he or she died during or between regular school sessions.
- 12- Illness: A student who left school for an indefinite period of time because of a physical, school approved illness.

Note: Federal rules on reporting students as a dropout are provided in Appendix C.

2.3 Part-time students

Part-time students are those students who attend classes at your school without taking a full academic load. These students may or may not be officially enrolled in another school. Include these students on the enrollment record and the attendance record because they may contribute to their resident district's Average Daily Membership and the school's Allowable Tuition.

Students who are officially enrolled in another school (admission status 07) will not contribute to the school's enrollment (i.e., October 1 headcount). Part-time students who are not enrolled elsewhere do contribute to the school's enrollment.

2.4 Determining a Student's Final Classification

A student's classification is recorded separately from entry/reentry status. At the beginning of the school year, the classification column is blank. The classification for an individual student will change during or at the end of the school year. The enrollment record should include a final classification for all students. The classification codes are listed below.

- DE- Deceased: If a student dies during the school year, their exit type will be 11 and the final classification will be "DE".
- DR- Dropout: A student is considered a dropout when he or she discontinues schools (exit 14), is absent for 10 consecutive school days with an unknown status (exit 15), moves and does not continue schooling (exit 16), transfers to a GED program NOT operated by a Vermont public school (exit 18), or transfers to a college program (exit 19). For more information on dropouts see Appendix C.
- GC- Graduated or Completed School: If a student finishes her or his program of study, he or she is classified as graduated or completed. Students will receive this classification upon receipt of a regular high school diploma (exit 08), or the receipt of a certificate of completion or a certificate of attendance (exit 09).
- NP- Not Promoted: If student's grade level does not increase at the end of the school year (i.e., the student is retained).
- PR- Promoted: If a student's grade level increases during or at the end of the school year. This includes students who matriculate to another school after successful completion and promotion from the highest instructional level of the current school to the next higher level (exit 07).
- SD- Summer Dropout: A student who attended your school during the previous year who was expected to start classes at the beginning of this school year and who does not attend school on any of the first 10 days of classes without an excuse and is not known to be enrolled in any other educational program.
- TR- Transfer: When pupils transfer from your school to another school or to an approved home study program, mark them as transfers ("TR"). This includes exit codes 01, 02, 03, 04, 05 or

06. If a transfer student re-enters your school during the current school year, you would begin a separate enrollment record with the appropriate entry/reentry code, begin tracking attendance from the beginning of the new enrollment and record the proper classification at the end of the subsequent enrollment period.

NC- No Category: When a student is on a school register but enrolled elsewhere (e.g., a home study student; admission status 07)) no category at the end of the school year. In addition, a student who falls ill and withdraws from school would be included in this category (exit code 12). These students would not be included in the calculation of graduation or dropout rates.

CHAPTER THREE: THE ATTENDANCE RECORD

3.1 Overview

The attendance record is a daily log of each enrolled student that shows who is present, and who is absent (both excused and unexcused absences). The attendance record is also supporting documentation for the enrollment record.

The record of attendance verifies a student's continuous enrollment and participation in school. Consequently, it is the school's responsibility to monitor each student's attendance by investigating a student's status within 10 days of the first date of absence.

3.2 General Attendance Rules and Requirements

1. A school is required to take attendance once per attendance day.
2. A day of attendance is defined as a day when the school is officially open and a majority of students are recorded as in attendance.
3. A full-time kindergarten program records an attendance in the same manner as any other grade level (once daily). A part-time kindergarten program is one that does not provide educational services all day every day the school is officially open during the school year. To adequately calculate a Full-time Equivalent for students attending these programs, a part-time kindergarten program must record attendance for morning and afternoon sessions separately.
4. A student is either present or absent every day that the school is officially open, and he or she is not officially enrolled in another educational program.
5. A teacher, registrar or otherwise authorized person must record the attendance of each enrolled student in a school register each day that the school is in session.
6. Both excused and unexcused absences must be recorded in the register. An absence is considered excused when it meets the definition (see glossary). All other absences are unexcused.
7. A student receiving educational services at home (typically an EEE student) will be considered in attendance when those services are provided as expected. An absence is recorded if a scheduled meeting does not take place.
8. Students who are enrolled in your school but receiving educational services elsewhere are considered in attendance even on days when they are off campus. These students include but are not limited to a Page in legislature who does regular work assignments, a student in a work program that is part of the school day, a student spending required days in an evaluation program at the Baird Center, a student at an area technical center or a student in a hospital receiving tutoring.
9. A student officially enrolled elsewhere but taking courses at this school (e.g., a home study student taking academic classes) will be recorded in attendance on those days the student is expected to attend classes and absent on days that the student is expected but does not appear. Days that a part-time student is not expected in school are not counted as either an attendance or absence.
10. Do not record attendance for home study students who are not taking academic courses but participate in extra-curricular activities.
11. Each student's attendance should be monitored so that a student is not absent for 10 or more consecutive school days without an investigation. The school must make a good faith effort to determine the reason for the absence or the student's school status. A student who has been absent for 10 consecutive school days for an unknown reason must be reported as a dropout.
12. A student under an out-of-school suspension will remain on the enrollment record and absences recorded for each of the days the student is not attending classes.
13. A student who has been expelled from school will remain on the enrollment record and absences will be recorded for each of the days the student is not attending classes, except in the case where a school is providing educational services for the expelled student. In this case, the student will be recorded as in attendance but not in the building. If an expelled student enrolls in another school he or she should be removed from the enrollment record with the appropriate exit code. If a previously expelled student does not return to school as expected and is absent for 10 consecutive school days the student is recorded as status unknown and counted as a dropout or summer dropout, whichever is most appropriate.

3.3 Instructions for Completing the Attendance Record

The AOE will no longer provide the A&B Pages to schools. Instead, schools are expected to use a computerized system for tracking student attendance. Please note, the Attendance record is not to be kept as part of the public record. Beginning with the 2005-2006 school year, the Daily Record of Attendance was replaced by a list of students.

In your schools computerized information system provide a complete enrollment record for each student expected to attend school, beginning with the first day of the school year (July 1). Students entering after the first day of school must be added. Begin recording attendance and absences on the first day of classes.

A pupil who begins attending your school after the first day the school is in session, should only have attendance and absences recorded beginning with the first day they attended classes.

The school term begins on the first day the school is in actual session. Each day the school is closed for any reason including holidays, in-service days or snow days must be recorded.

The attendance record must support the enrollment record.

Schools can adopt other procedures for tracking attendance and absences provided that aggregate counts of attendances, excused absences and unexcused absences can be calculated for reporting.

CHAPTER FOUR: SCHOOL COURSES WITH EDUCATORS

4.1 Overview

By collecting school course information the VT AOE can determine the types of courses schools are offering to students, the rigor of courses, the qualifications of educators providing educational services, school adherence to state standards, and other indicators of instructional services offered by schools. Furthermore, by using federally standard course codes the VT AOE can make comparisons between schools and also between states.

CHAPTER SIX: SCHOOL INFORMATION AND LISTS

6.1 Overview

This part of the school register contains information about this particular school and lists of certain information, students and personnel. Title 16 of the Vermont Statutes has specific requirements for the school register, the Agency of Education, Superintendents and School Registrars. These statutes are reprinted in Appendix B of this document. This chapter of the school register is designed to meet some of these requirements including a specific requirement for recording all certified school personnel and recording fire and emergency preparedness drills.

The number of lists and worksheets were substantially reduced in the 2005-2006 school year, because the Agency of Education currently collects student information through the Student Census. The remaining lists represent those required to meet Vermont Statutes regarding the content of the school register.

Instead, a list of students with their grade, district of residence, end of year classification, and aggregate days of attendance is required. This list can be created from the Spring Census application or a school may choose to create the list using this page or a printed report from their local student information system.

6.2.5 General Instructions

If you choose to fill out this section during the school year use pencil and then overwrite with ink before the register is submitted to the superintendent's office before July 15. If additional pages are needed, please contact the Agency of Education Data Management and Analysis Team, (802) 479-1044.

6.2. Instructions

6.2.1 Identification Page

Please provide the requested information about this school including the grades served, the dates that courses begin and end, school holidays, in-service days, the identity of the superintendent, principal and registrar. The superintendent and registrar should sign this page prior to filing the school register.

6.2.2 Fire and Emergency Preparedness Drills

Provide the date, hour and time spent vacating the building for each fire and emergency preparedness drill. Every school is required to perform two drills in the first 30 days of classes and then once every month. There is no longer a severe weather exception in the State of Vermont.

6.2.3 List of Teachers

Write in the names of teachers, their type of license and the date the license expires. Valid license types include those listed on the included List of Teachers form.

6.2.4 List of Students

Schools are no longer required to file a Daily Record of Attendance with the Yellow Pages.

APPENDIX A: GLOSSARY

DEFINITION OF TERMS USED IN THE ELEMENTARY/SECONDARY SCHOOL REGISTER

Adult, With Diploma - Students who are older than 16 years of age and who have received a diploma, GED or other certificate of completion. They have not enrolled in a regularly prescribed program of studies but are taking classes specifically to develop skills and knowledge concerned with upgrading their interests and abilities. They differ from Postgraduate students whose objective is to continue their formal education. These students are now reported in the same grade level category with Postgraduate students.

Adult, Without Diploma - Students who are older than 16 years of age and who HAVE NOT received a diploma, GED or other certificate of completion. These students are usually in a regularly prescribed program of study and are working toward a high school diploma. May also include students who have enrolled in the Technical Centers specifically to upgrade their abilities in the area of employment.

Approved Education Program – A program that is evaluated and approved by the state board pursuant to written standards, that is neither an approved independent school nor a public school, and that provides educational services to one or more pupils in collaboration with the pupil's or pupils' school district of residence. An "approved education program": includes an "approved teen parent education program."

Average Daily Membership (ADM) - ADM is the 20-day average of students between the 11th and 30th days of the school year. The ADM is reported by resident district and is used in the calculation of the equalized pupil count for school districts. Resident ADM differs from "enrollment" in that it is based on where students live, while enrollment is a headcount of students enrolled in school as of October 1 and is reported by school or operating school district.

Classification - This refers to the classification column on Page A of the Register of Daily Attendance & Absence. The classification for a student may change several times during the school year; i.e., transferred to another school (TR), and then re-enters, etc. The final classification of a student at the end of the year (or the end of a student's enrollment during the year) is used in calculating a school's graduation and dropout rates.

Co-Teacher of Record- A teacher who shares the responsibility for ensuring the course curriculum meets the standards required for the course.

Course Section - The course section is locally defined and can be any alpha-numeric code up to 20 characters, provided that the section is unique for a group of students in a classroom at a particular time.

Course Status Completed – the student completed all course requirements prior to the end of the school year

Course Status Enrolled – the student was still enrolled in the course at the end of the school year (June 30, 2015) and has not received a grade yet.

Deceased - Students who die during the school year or during the preceding summer.

Dropout -

School Year - Students who left school before graduating, who did not complete an approved program of studies, and who did not transfer to another school or an approved home study program during the period between September and June of this school year. Whenever a pupil is absent from school without permission for more than 10 continuous days and the truant officer, after a diligent search, certifies that the pupil has not enrolled in another prescribed program of study, the pupil shall be removed from the register and classified as a dropout (DR).

Summer - Students who left school during the period between July 1st and the first day of the current school year. These are students who finish the previous year's requirements but who do not return to school in the fall and who do not transfer to another school or an approved home study program; i.e., there is no transcript request. If the school is not notified that the student is transferring before the beginning of classes, and the student doesn't attend school in the first 10 days, then he/she is considered a summer dropout and the final "classification" on Page A of the Register of Daily Attendance & Absence would be "SD" (summer dropout). No attendances for this student will be recorded beyond 10 days.

Early Essential Education (EEE) - Center or Home Base

Any eligible children, age three through five, with significant development delays or handicapping conditions enrolled in EEE. Federal, state and local dollars support these special education and related services.

Educational Support Team (EST) - Any student who is receiving services which were discussed and planned at an educational support team meeting, for which written documentation is maintained, whether or not there is a written plan.

Educator IDs - The unique identifier assigned to the educator by the VT AOE.

English Language Learner (ELL formally LEP) – A student who:

- Has a primary (first acquired) language or a language spoken at home that is not English, as indicated on the State of Vermont Primary Home Language survey form, AND
- Lacks the level of English proficiency in one or more of the four language skill areas of listening, speaking, reading and writing required to perform grade appropriate work comparable to native English speaking peers, AND
- Meets the criteria defined under the State Board of Education Rule 9500, "Reporting Students for Whom English is not the Primary Language," AND

- Is NOT an exchange student.

Elementary - A program of public school education adapted to the needs of students in Kindergarten and the first six grades.

Enrollment - An unduplicated head count of students registered in a school or area program as of October 1.

Ethnicity- The distinction between groups of people based on cultural practices, language, cuisine and traditions. At this time, the only ethnicity of concern is "Hispanic or Latino". A student of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, Central or South American, or other Spanish culture of origin is considered "Hispanic or Latino".

Excused Absences Defined:

An absence is considered excusable when it is the result of:

- Personal illness;
- Appointments with health professionals that cannot be made outside of the regular school day;
- Observance of recognized religious holidays when the observance is required during a regular school day;
- Emergency family situations such as a death in the family;
- Planned absences for personal or educational purposes which have been approved.
- Absences due to suspension or expulsion

Expulsion – When a student is not allowed to attend school for more than 10 days as approved by the appropriate school authorities. When a student is expelled and they do not transfer to another school they continue to be a member of the school and counted as absent during the expulsion period. These absences are considered excused so the student isn't counted as a truant.

Funding Source - The person, group, or organizational entity paying for a student's educational expenditures. These expenditures are typically paid by the student's resident district by operating a school, or paying tuition. However, a student's expenses may be covered by an alternative agreement between the school board and another party. The school district may assume the responsibility for a non-resident, non-member student or the school district may be given funding to pay for that student's educational expenses.
